THE THANET DISTRICT COUNCIL

RECORD OF DECISION OF CABINET

Relevant Portfolio:

Community Services

Date of Decision:

17 June 2010

Subject:

A Strategy to Tackle Anti-Social Behaviour 2010-11

Key Decision

Yes

In Forward Plan

Yes

Brief summary of matter:

Anti-Social Behaviour continues to blight neighbourhoods in the Thanet District through issues such as neighbour disputes, noise and dumped rubbish. This strategy outlines what key groups such as the police and council are going to do about it in the next 12 months.

Decision made:

1. That the Anti-Social Behaviour Strategy 2010/11 be reviewed and any comments or alterations be given to the Community Safety Unit to be included in the final published document.
2. That the Anti-Social Behaviour Strategy 2010/11 be endorsed by the Cabinet as Thanet District Council's plan of action to tackle and target anti-social behaviour in Thanet.

Reasons for decision:

Thanet will benefit from an ASB strategy which combines the aspirations and strengthens the partnership between Community Safety Unit, TDC Landlord Services, Orbit and the Mediation Service in the pursuit of tackling anti-social behaviour, protecting victims and improving confidence in the services provided.

Alternatives considered and why rejected:

None.

Details of any conflict of interest declared by any executive Member who has been consulted and of any dispensation granted by the Standards Committee:
