Clarify what we want to achieve and how we are going to do it and then put the appropriate resources in place Work is required to prioritise within our plans and be clear about the few top priorities which need to be achieved. Once we have clarified our top priorities, we need to think about how the organisation will need to change in the future in order to deliver them. We need to communicate your top priorities clearly, consistently and repeatedly. AGS Significant Issue 2014/2015	Suggested Action	Task List	Progress November 2015
There is a lack of clarity about the boundaries between political and managerial responsibilities. Our ambitious agenda will be supported by strengthening the top management team. We have critical vacancies to fill and a restructure to complete. We need to consider ways in which to empower and delegate more decisions to staff and add to our workforce development strategy. Clear messages – well communicated We have many strengths in the council in which we should take pride and which could take centre stage if our reputation improved.
