6. QUESTIONS FROM THE PRESS AND PUBLIC

(a) Question No. 1 From a Member of the Public - Dickens House Museum

As Councillor Townend was unavailable for this meeting, Mr Kirkpatrick asked Councillor L Fairbrass the following question:

“Last July Cllr. Townend expected a report to Cabinet by this January regarding the future of the museum. A £50,000 bequest has not been accepted by Council six years after first offered to a previous Leisure Officer and others since, including the previous Leader. Why no action on both items?”

Councillor Fairbrass responded with the following points:

- The Council had been required to seek expert legal advice to understand the Council’s status in respect of the bequest.
- The Council had received and considered this legal advice and options on how to proceed would form a paper for Cabinet in due course.

7. QUESTIONS FROM MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

It was noted that no questions had been received from Members of the Council in accordance with Council Procedure Rule 14.

8. NOTICE OF MOTION

It was noted that no notices of motion had been received from Members of Council in accordance with the Council Procedure Rule 16.

9. LEADERS REPORT

During his report the Leader covered the following areas:

- The reasoning behind the proposed adjustment to the council tax increase;
- Welcoming to the peer review team;
- Activity at Ramsgate Port which had seen the arrival of two car ferries in the previous week. The area allocated for the pits at the Sprint Revival event on the port site had become unavailable and thanks were offered to everyone involved in successfully establishing an alternative location.

- Youth Cliftonville project's 'Find a Solution' DVD was a finalist in the national youth crime beat awards. They were invited to show their DVD at the next Council meeting on 31 March;
- TDC collaborated with East Kent Collage to organise a Thanet jobs fair in spring;
- The second round of Manston airport soft market testing had closed with three parties confirming their interest;
- Thanks offered to Mayor of Broadstairs Rosalind Binks, and Councillor Campbell who had encouraged links with enthusiastic residents in Broadstairs and Ramsgate. The residents wished to volunteer to improve Broadstairs and Ramsgate sea fronts.

Councillor Bayford as Leader of the Conservative Party responded with the following points:

- The Conservative group would not have increased council tax;
- He hoped that the peer review members would see the significant improvements had been made;
- What level of business could be expected from the car ferries at Ramsgate Port, and were long term options being considered for the site?
- An offer of congratulations to those involved in the success at the Quarter Deck, Cliftonville, and the jobs fair in spring was good news;
- It was positive that there was interest in the Manston site, however the longer the site remained shut; the harder it would be to reopen. Would the Development Consent Order (DCO) application submitted by RiverOak impact on the chance of achieving a successful Compulsory Purchase Order (CPO)?

The Leader replied to Councillor Bayford's comments with the following points:

- The change to the increase in council tax amounted to 81p per year for a band D property;
- The Leader would discuss the prospects for the Port with the group leaders at their next group leader meeting;
- A DCO application would not have any impact on a CPO in the near future.

- That she had no further comments to make as Councillor Bayford had covered the relevant issues.
