The Police are asking for a review of the premises licence for 555 Pizza, 15 Northwood Road, Ramsgate. The Police feel that the licensing objectives of

The Prevention of Crime and Disorder,
The Prevention of Public Safety,
The Prevention of Public Nuisance and
The Protection of Children from Harm, have been breached in the most serious of terms. The Police feel that only revocation of this premises licence will ensure that the licensing objectives are met.

Application for the review of a premises licence or club premises certificate under the Licensing Act 2003

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application

(please read guidance note 2)

Tamim Rahmani is the premises licence holder of 555 Pizza, Northwood Road, Ramsgate. Where a serious sexual assault took place at the accommodation above this premises. Of which Rahmani had control over.

The Police are asking for revocation of the premises licence.

In the early hours of Sunday 18th September 2016 the premises licence holder Rahmani along with 3 other males were out walking and have approached a lone 16 year old female in the street. This female was vulnerable as she was lost and has asked them for help in finding her destination.

Rahmani and the other 3 males offered to show the female where she needed to go. The female has trusted Rahmani and the 3 other males that they would help her. While walking with the female one of these males started to touch her inappropriately. The female is 16 years of age with 4 adult men who she did not know and she has become scared. Instead of assisting her, they taken her to the premises and have taken her to the flat directly above. She has then been subject to a horrific ordeal and was raped repeatedly by Rahmani and the 3 other men.

The premises licence holder Rahmani and the three other males have been convicted of rape at Canterbury Crown Court.

Rahmani the premises licence holder is now a convicted rapist.

This offence was carried out on a young vulnerable female who was lost and has trusted Rahmani and the other 3 males, they implied that they would help her but have then abused that level of trust in the gravest way possible and repeatedly raped this female. After the ordeal the female was told to leave and left on her own. The female has left scared, lost and has sought refuge by someone who has helped her.

The premises licence has stayed in Rahmani's name for this whole time. No effort from him or his family in getting this changed. He is eminently not a suitable person to hold any premises licence. Following the arrest and ongoing court case, there has been significant public interest in the premises. Police have been called to demonstrations outside the premises and have concerns regarding future demonstrations and the potential for future disorder outside.

The premises are under control of a convicted rapist. In the circumstance above it cannot be allowed to continue to operate under its existing licence as there has been arguably the most serious breach of all four licensing objectives.

The Police believe that revocation is the only alternative to this premises licence.
