13. APPEALS

13.1 The council has carried out the necessary consultation and given the necessary notification further to section 64 and 72 of the Act

13.2 Any challenge to this Order must be made at the High Court by an interested person within six weeks of it being made. An interested person is someone who lives in, regularly works in or visits the restricted area. This means that only those who are directly affected by the restrictions have the power to challenge the validity of the Order on two grounds;

- a) That the Council did not have the power to make the Order or to include particular prohibitions or requirements imposed by the Order; or
- b) That one of the requirements under Chapter 2 Part 4 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 was not complied with in relation to the Order.

Where an application is made, the High Court can decide to suspend the operation of the Order pending the Court's decision, in part or totality. The High Court has the ability to uphold the Order, quash it, or vary it.

14. VALIDITY (SEVERANCE)

14. If any provision of this Order is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions of the Order shall continue in full force and effect as if the Order had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminate
